NEVERWONDER is back again! This time they're celebrating the official release of their new album, "NEVERWONDER", on Saturday, June 16 at Molly Malone's Irish Pub, in Los Angeles, California at 9:30 PM. But first, for those readers not yet up on all their Indie alt-rock artists, here is a bit of background information on the act in question:

NEVERWONDER

NEVERWONDER is a rocking Los Angeles-based band. The group's founding members are siblings Andres Ramos (drums, percussion, and backing vocals) and Vincent Ramos (bass guitar, and backing vocals). The current roster also includes their new guitarist, California native, Jay Wise (Kansas) and their new lead singer, the Swiss-born, classically-trained, former solo artist, Fabienne Grisel.

NEVERWONDER's music

NEVERWONDER's signature sound is a musical mélange of such genres as alternative rock, funk, pop, soul, and rock 'n' roll. It has always centered upon heavy rock beats and strong grooves. The group's major musical influences include such known names as No Doubt, Mary J. Blige, Lenny Kravitz, the Foo Fighters, Tina Turner, and even Pink. Their music is often said to be driven by consistently strong musicianship and an effective personal chemistry. It is rooted in personal life experiences. Their sound has been praised by both critics and fans alike.

NEVERWONDER's rock resume

NEVERWONDER's rock resume is highlighted by their 5-song EP "Really Let It Out" and their soon to be released new titular studio disc. The act has performed at numerous venues such as The Coach House, the Galaxy Theater, the House of Blues (Orange County and Los Angeles), the Key Club, The Roxy, the Viper Room, and the Whisky A Go Go.

NEVERWONDER has also been featured on the hot radio station KLOS 95.5.

It was there the group won in a segment of the popular voter-driven "Stay Or Go" on an episode of the famous "Heidi & Frank Show." Additionally, were also included on the station's "Local Licks" which highlights unsigned L.A. artists.

NEVERWONDER has also been a part of the successful Rock and Roll Marathon series all over the West Coast and in Las Vegas.
