Voyage LA Features, Interviews NEVERWONDER

Southern California lifestyle website Voyage LA recently interviewed NEVERWONDER. "What is great about NEVERWONDER and having any type of struggles is that it does not matter what it is, we can always work it out...this is because we think of everything we do as a TEAM/BAND concept. We are better together than apart so walking into writing songs, working on artwork, social media, website, recording studio, booking shows, playing live and photo shoots. We take everyone's ideas and mix them up together, this way everybody has a say and we can go over their ideas," the band told Voyage L.A. Music Connection Raves NEVERWONDER's Live Show

Reviewing a recent NEVERWONDER live show, respected national publication Music Connection writes, "From the moment the band strikes the opening notes and beats to the opening song, it's clear that this is a talented and tight hard rock unit. Songs such as "Spell" and the glam fun of "Movin' On" have a driving rock vibe that, combined with (lead vocalist) Fabienne Grisel's powerful vocals, offer a sound that sits somewhere in the middle of Heart and Fleetwood Mac. The rhythm section (Vincent Ramos, bass; Andres Ramos, drums) translates to a solid spine for the other two to work off of. (Guitarist Jay) Wise has proven to be a thrilling addition. Neverwonder is building a fan-base, they're having a blast, and they're getting better all the time."
